

NEW!

Graduate Certificate in Writing Pedagogy

UCLA Writing Programs

- Do you want to join the conversation about student-centered teaching in diverse academic environments?
- Are you interested in the teaching of writing or language?
- Do you want to increase your chances on the academic job market?

The new Graduate Certificate in Writing Pedagogy is the first UCLA certificate to integrate critical thinking about teaching with pedagogical practice. This comprehensive program is designed as a capstone for graduate student-instructors preparing for a variety of academic careers, including tenure-track positions at R1 universities, university administration, and jobs in composition and language.
